

Integrated Humanities + Linguistics and Literary Studies: MA, Dual Degree

This dual degree program creates a pathway between the MA in Integrated Humanities at the University of Guelph (U of G) and the MA in Linguistics and Literary Studies at Vrije Universiteit Brussel (VUB). The dual degree brings together expertise in European and Francophone culture, history, contemporary politics and society, and multilingual mediation and communication with six areas of specialization.

dualdegree.uoguelph.ca/

Program

Students will spend one year at each university and will earn an MA from both institutions. Applicants must apply to and be accepted into each program, separately, indicating interest in the dual degree program. Coursework for both programs is normally done in English and/or French.

Subject Areas

Students work in one of the following 6 subject areas:

- Intermediality
- Linguistics
- Literary Studies
- Multilingualism and Foreign Language Acquisition
- Psycholinguistics and Neurolinguistics
- Multilingual Mediation and Communication

Admission Requirements

VUB MA in Linguistics and Literary Studies:

- BA in Linguistics and Literary Studies (or related fields) from a Flemish or international university.

Application includes a motivation statement, reference letters and a Skype interview.

Apply here: vub.be/en/apply

VUB Application Deadline:

Visa students (non-EU/EEA nationals):
April 1

Students who do not require a visa and have not obtained their degree in Belgium: August 31

Entry: September

Grand-Place, Brussels

U of G MA in Integrated Humanities:

- equivalent of an Honours degree from a recognized institution with at least a B+ average in the last four full-time semesters of study.
- reading competence in a European language in addition to English is recommended.

The following documents must accompany your request for admission:

- detailed up-to-date curriculum vitae
- one-page statement of research (letter of intent) outlining your reasons for applying to this program
- sample of writing that displays your aptitude for research and analytical thinking (approx. 2,500 words)
- Two letters of recommendation

Apply here: graduatestudies.uoguelph.ca/future/applying-guelph

U of G Application Deadline:

January 31

Entry: September

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN:

- Identity formation (e.g. minority, national, gender)
- Linguistics
- Multilingualism and foreign language acquisition
- European history, culture and politics
- Intermediality

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES:

- Government Ministries/Civil Service/ International Organizations
- Teaching
- Cultural sector
- Interpreting services
- International relations

CONTACT INFORMATION

Dual Degree Coordinator:

Dr. Margot Irvine
mirvine@uoguelph.ca

Multilingual Master Programme Director:

prof. dr. Janine Hauthal janine.hauthal@vub.be

Multilingual Master Assistants Team:

MUMA TEAM, muma@vub.be