Information

We offer our gratitude to the lands on which the University of Guelph campuses (Guelph, Ridgetown and Guelph–Humber) are situated and the Indigenous ancestors who have inhabited these lands for centuries. We recognize that our campuses are located on the lands of the Dish with One Spoon Wampum and we offer our respect to the Mississaugas of the Credit, the Delaware Nation at Moraviantown, Six Nations of the Grand River and the diverse communities of First Nations, Inuit and Métis peoples who reside on these lands today.

WHAT PATH WILL YOU TAKE?

Welcome to the University of Guelph, and thank you for considering U of G for the next step in your academic journey.

Graduate education is an opportunity to deepen your knowledge, pursue questions that interest you, develop specialized expertise, and build the skills and experiences to advance your career. Whether you are considering a course-based master's, a research-intensive program, or a PhD, your graduate experience should challenge you, open new professional and academic possibilities, and prepare you to make a meaningful impact in your field and society.

At the University of Guelph, graduate education is grounded in our shared commitment to Improve Life. Across disciplines, our graduate students bring curiosity, expertise, and new perspectives to complex challenges facing our communities and our world. Whether you are developing professional expertise or advancing knowledge through research, you'll have opportunities to work with others, put ideas into action, and build the knowledge, skills, and connections to make an impact in your field and beyond.

Choosing where to pursue graduate studies is an important decision. As you explore this viewbook, I encourage you to discover our programs, meet our community, and imagine where a graduate degree from the University of Guelph could take you.

I hope we'll have the opportunity to welcome you to U of G and support you throughout your graduate journey.

Dr. Sean Lyons
Assistant Vice-President
Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies
University of Guelph

UofG Scholarships and Funding

graduatestudies.uoguelph.ca/current/funding

Each year, the University of Guelph invests millions of dollars into thesis-based graduate students and the research they are pursuing. The University wants to ensure that these students can dedicate themselves to the successful completion of their graduate programs. Funding packages for eligible students are determined within their graduate departments, with some departments routinely committing $24K+ per year for four years. Packages may be made up of a number of components, such as:

- Graduate Teaching Assistantships (GTAs);
- Graduate Research Assistantships (GRAs)/Graduate Service Assistantships (GSAs); and
- Scholarships (external and/or internal).

Ultimately, the amount of funding secured by graduate students is commonly higher than the amounts committed to in their offers of admission, as there are many opportunities for additional awards, research stipends and employment income.

In 2025/26 graduate students at the University of Guelph secured $24.5 million (M) in scholarships and bursaries, including $10.2M from external agencies.

In addition, the University provided $40.5M to Graduate students in the form of GTAs, GRAs and GSAs, bringing total graduate student support in 2025/26 to $65M.

Here are a few scholarships unique to U of G Indigenous Graduate Scholarships

Total value varies for each scholarship, for more information go to graduatestudies.uoguelph.ca/current/funding/scholarships/internal

Brock Doctoral Scholarship
Total Value: $150,000

International Doctoral Scholarships
Total Value: $50,000

Nora Cebotarev Memorial Graduate Scholarship
Total Value: $25,000

Braithwaite Conference Travel Grant
Various awards of up to $5,000

Achieving Your Goals

Graduate studies at the University of Guelph offers the opportunity to study and conduct research across various disciplines. With access to professors and professionals from a variety of programs, a graduate program can be tailored to your specific research interests.

Student-focused

Graduate students will have the opportunity to work closely with faculty members who are committed to the development of their students as future researchers, educators and practitioners.

Julia Billings, MSc Engineering grad student with one of her advisors, Dr. John R. Donald.

“His guidance has been especially helpful in structuring my methodology, from developing interview protocols to conducting thematic analysis. He encourages independent thinking while offering constructive feedback, allowing me to develop confidence as a researcher.”

GRAD STUDENT RESOURCES

Improve life as a graduate student at U of G.

Graduate studies at U of G is a community. Our shared purpose is to improve life and we start by improving the environment in which you learn and explore. On this page you will find resources to support you on your journey as a grad student.

U of G Services
uoguelph.ca/services

A wide variety of services and tools are available across the University of Guelph's campuses to assist students, faculty, and staff with teaching, learning, housing, health, and other concerns.

Grad Pathways
graduatestudies.uoguelph.ca/grad-pathways

Grad Pathways is the hub of academic and professional skills development opportunities for graduate students and postdoctoral fellows. It is administered by the Office of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies in collaboration with on-campus and off-campus partners.

Office of Research
uoguelph.ca/research

The Office of Research works to enable and create opportunities in support of people and partnerships that advance the quality, preeminence and societal value of U of G research and creative endeavours.

Research Innovation Office
uoguelph.ca/research/innovation/

Turning U of G discoveries into innovative solutions that address today's complex challenges. They have the connections, resources, and tools to help you create, collaborate and commercialize your research to improve life for the community, the country and the world!

Athletics and Facilities
gryphons.ca

The Guelph Gryphons Athletics Centre is a new state of the art facility. The facility features a running track, basketball and volleyball courts, an indoor soccer field, pools, a climbing wall and numerous multipurpose rooms. A private fitness space features grad/staff only times.

Office of Diversity and Human Rights
uoguelph.ca/diversity-human-rights

The Office of Diversity and Human Rights (DHR) coordinates, evaluates, and promotes the University's equity, diversity, and inclusion efforts. DHR develops, manages, and supports educational and outreach initiatives, and promotes the fundamental rights and responsibilities guaranteed under Ontario's Human Rights Code.

Accessibility
uoguelph.ca/csd

We are committed to creating a barrier-free environment with the belief that providing accessible services is a shared responsibility among students, faculty and administrators.

Indigenous Student Centre (ISC) uoguelph.ca/studentexperience/isc

The Indigenous Student Centre (ISC) is the home away from home for First Nations, Inuit, and Métis graduate and undergraduate students. The ISC provides a culturally supportive environment that promotes academic excellence and the intellectual, spiritual, emotional and physical development of all Indigenous students. Graduate students are encouraged to connect with the Indigenous Student Advisor at indigenous.student@uoguelph.ca to get connected with community or discuss financial, academic, research, cultural and personal concerns.

The University of Guelph is committed to working towards decolonization and reconciliation with First Nations, Inuit, and Métis peoples, communities and lands. We encourage you to review Bi-Naagwad | the Indigenous Initiatives Strategy report.

GRAD STUDENT RESOURCES

McLaughlin Library
lib.uoguelph.ca

The library is here to support you every step of the way on your graduate studies journey. As a U of G student, you have access to millions of academic resources via Omni, the library's online catalogue. But the library's much more than a place to access resources and study; it's also a place where you'll find valuable support as you navigate your way through your graduate program.

Visit the library in-person, or online, to book appointments and get academic and research support on topics including:

- Writing – receive feedback on your writing at all stages of the writing process; learn strategies for organizing your ideas and structuring your thesis or dissertation; and to get advice on your clarity, cohesion, and style.
- English Language Support – if English isn't your dominant language, get support with reading, writing, listening, pronunciation, and communication.
- Research assistance – learn to identify and narrow your topic; advanced skills; and get started on a literature review, scoping review, systematic review, or other knowledge synthesis; and how to use citation manager Zotero.
- Working with data and navigating the whole research data lifecycle.
- Studying, time management, and presentation skills.
- Scholarship, Publishing, and Author Support – when you're ready to publish, get help navigating author rights, copyright, intellectual property, sharing and publishing your research, preserving your research, and more.
- Archival & Special Collections – meet with a specialist to discuss your project or research.

In addition to appointments, the library hosts graduate-specific workshops and programs to support you on your journey at U of G. Visit the library's website to learn more about all the supports, services, spaces, and resources you have access to.

GRAD STUDENTS IN ACTION

The Grad Student Support Circle (GSSC) is a weekly meeting for mutual peer support. It offers an opportunity for connection among graduate students and a safe space to talk about the joys and challenges that are unique to grad studies.

The Arboretum encompasses 400 acres adjacent to campus. It is a beautiful place to recharge in all seasons.

My advisor, Daniel Fischlin has been terrific. Always there for all of us in the program.”

SUPPORT FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

International Student Support

uoguelph.ca/studentexperience/new-intl-students/

Pre-Arrival Support

Student Experience supports students with their transition to life at U of G. Once you receive an offer of admission, you will be connected with either the Global Pre-Arrival Support Advisor or the International Student Advisors, based on your program. They will provide you with pre-arrival immigration and transition support leading up to your first semester. Learn more about supports and services for new international students at uoguelph.ca/newintl.

International Student Advising

The International Student Advisors (ISAs) provide advising and immigration support for all international students throughout their time at U of G and in Canada, helping students navigate the relationship between academics and immigration policies. Common topics of conversation include financial difficulties, housing, and academic concerns, Immigration (study permit, visa, post-graduate work permit, etc.), and cultural adjustment. ISAs can also help you get involved on campus, connect you with other students, and talk through any personal concerns. Regardless of the nature of your visit, our advisors are always happy to see you and to provide guidance and support as needed.

START International

START International is a free orientation program for new international students, new permanent residents to Canada, new exchange students, and out-of-country Canadians. The program will introduce you to other students, the campus environment, the resources available to aid in your social and academic transition, and what you can expect from your University of Guelph experience!

A Great University Within a Great City.

Welcome to Guelph, one of Ontario’s fastest growing, best-run cities. Our 350 hectare, award-winning campus becomes your home when you enroll at the University of Guelph. The local lifestyle is progressive, as is the local economy. With a population of over 133,000, the city boasts urban amenities and yet provides the welcome of a smaller town. There is an extensive transit system to move you around, and the city is a stone’s throw away from other major municipalities like Toronto, Kitchener, Waterloo and Hamilton.

The architecture is rich, the legacy is strong, and the community is connected. Our alumni agree, the city’s warm embrace and the relationships you generate here will stick with you long after you leave.
