Agenda

Equity, diversity, and inclusion initiatives at NSERC

- NSERC's focus on EDI
- Why is EDI important?
- EDI data collection

NSERC is committed to implementing policies and processes which identify and mitigate barriers and biases within our programs.

NSERC's focus on EDI

Research team

- Access the largest pool of qualified applicants
- Expand collective intelligence, discovery, and innovation

Research design

- Enhance the scientific quality and usefulness of NSE research
- Increase the overall excellence of the research

Why is EDI important?

Considerations

- Who are the research subjects and end-users?
- What are the consequences of not including diversity?

Additional resources

- NSERC's Framework on EDI
- Guide for Applicants: Considering EDI in your application
- Gendered Innovations employs methods of diversity analysis to create new knowledge
 - Examples and case studies at:
<http://genderedinnovations.stanford.edu/>

Collection of self-identification data

Monitor equity performance of programs

Inform future measures to increase EDI in research enterprise

EDI data collection

Visible Minorities

Do you identify as a member of a visible minority in Canada?

Yes

Note: Visible minority refers to whether a person belongs to a visible minority group as defined by the Employment Equity Act and, if so, the visible minority group to which the person belongs. The Employment Equity Act defines visible minorities as "persons, other than Aboriginal peoples, who are non-Caucasian in race or non-white in colour".

If "Yes", select the options that you identify with.

I prefer not to answer

To select or deselect one or more options, hold down the "Control" key while clicking on all the relevant options.

The screenshot shows the NSERC website homepage. At the top, the text "Natural Sciences and Engineering Research Council of Canada" is displayed next to a red maple leaf logo and the "Canada" wordmark. A search bar is located in the top right. Below the header is a navigation menu with categories: "Students and Fellows", "Professors", "Business", "Information for", and "About". A horizontal strip of various scientific icons follows. The main content area features a large red banner with the word "Discover" in white. To the right of the banner, a "Login ^" button is circled in red, with a red arrow pointing to it. Below the banner, there are three main sections: "Develop", "Explore", "Promote", and "Celebrate" on the left; a central text block starting with "A braintrust of more than 11,000... 30,000 students, powered by over... annually. Rigorous quality assurance... NSERC Discovery investments create... and build the foundation for innovation..."; and three system links on the right: "On-line System >" (circled in red), "FDSR System >" (with a description of the Financial Data Submission and Reconciliation System), and "Research Portal >" (with a description of the Research Portal).
