Please indicate that you have read and agree to the following by checking the applicable box.

☐ I understand that in order to participate in a College heat, I must also be available to participate in both the University final on March 28th, 2017 at 1:00pm and in the provincial final at University of Waterloo on April 12th, 2017.

☐ I have read and agree to the follow the rules of the competition as listed on www.uoguelph.ca/graduatestudies/3MT.

☐ Due to the nature of the competition, we will not ask judges, reviewers, staff or the audience to agree to or sign non-disclosure agreements. If your research is being/has been conducted under contract with an outside sponsor, please discuss related contractual terms of confidentiality & intellectual property with your supervisor before presenting.

☐ All public sessions of the competition, including but not limited to oral presentations, are open to the public at large. Any and all of these public sessions may be broadcast to interested persons through media, including the Internet.

☐ Any data or information discussed or divulged in public sessions by presenters should be considered information that will likely enter the public realm, and presenters should not assume any right of confidentiality in any data or information discussed, divulged or presented in these sessions. This means if your research includes confidential or culturally sensitive material, you should think very carefully about how you can present this information. We advise that you discuss your competition entry with your supervisor(s) before entering the 3MT®

☐ The College, Office of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies, University of Waterloo and the 3 Minute Thesis Competition may make photocopies, photographs, videotapes and/or audiotapes of the presentations or material prepared for use in presentation any of the 3MT® competitions.
